LANGUEDOC ROUSSILLON

It's time to re-discover this incredible wine producing region of France. In the not-too-distant past, Languedoc-Roussillon was the obvious choice as a source of copious amounts of cheap wine to impress the neighbours over the fondue. Now, thanks to winemakers being encouraged to innovate and experiment, this vast wine region is home to some of the most exciting wines to be found anywhere in the world.

James Nicholson has always been a champion of winemakers from Languedoc-Roussillon and we are proud to show off just some of the fantastic wines from our friends in the region.

A newcomer to our range, the La Combe Saint Roch Rouge is a wonderfully smooth and soft red, representing the more approachable style of wine you can get in the region.

DOMAINE GAYDA T'AIR D'OC SYRAH

The gutsy T'Air d'Oc Syrah has a soft but full expression of the classic grape variety often favoured in the nearby Rhône Valley.

SAINT JACQUES DOMAINE D'ALBAS ROUGE

From the celebrated Minervois appellation, made by Andrew and Graham Nutter, marries three classic grape varieties from the region - Grenache, Carignan & Mourvèdre - revealing a beautiful, silky and complex wine.

DOMAINE GAYDA CEPAGE VIOIGNIER

Domaine Gayda is one of our customer favourites. Their superb Vioigner is a classic interpretation of the grape variety, offering balance, perfume and stone fruit flavours.

ROC DES ANGES L'EFFET PAPILLON BLANC

Made from Grenache Blanc is a light, fresh wine with a pleasing spiciness on the finish, indicative of the sophisticated winemaking typical of the producers.

The La Cuvée de Carole Chardonnay from Domaine de Ventenac is a wonderful style of unoaked Chardonnay with well balanced, fuller fruits and a smooth, velvety mouthfull.

In the spirit of optimism, we have included a rosé. These classic red grapes from the region combine to offer soft, aromatic red fruit characteristics familiar to those who enjoy Provence rosé.

PRÉFACE BLANC

The Préface Blanc is an organic blend of three traditional regional varieties, Grenache Blanc, Vermentino and Chardonnay, which brings forth complexity and depth.
