- Daumen Méditerranée 2020, S. Rhône, France

Dylan loves this wine because...

Coming from one of my favourite Châteaufort producers – Domaine de la Vieille Julienne (John-Paul Daumen) – the Méditerranée is made in the same winery and with the same attention to detail as the main wines. Along with Rhône varietals, Grenache, Syrah, Cinsault, Mourvèdre and Carignan, this wildcard wine throws merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon into the mix. Aromas of Garrigue herb and crushed rock, supported with bright red plum and sweet cherry. It's polished powdery tannins and medium body make it a suitable accompaniment to Christmas roast meats.

- Quinta de Chocapalha Red 2018, Lisboa, Portugal

Edel loves this wine because...

A fabulous Portuguese red blend from friend of JN, winemaker Sandra Tavares da Silva. A rich nose of red & black fruits, spices and floral notes. Lovely on the palate with soft tannins, good acidity and a long finish. Just perfect for a cold, mid-winter's evening! Pairs well with rich mushroom dishes.

- Parker Coonawarra Series Shiraz 2020, Coonawarra, Australia

Fiona loves this wine because...

An ideal glass of wine for warming you up on those cold winter nights. This Shiraz from Coonawarra in Australia is a dark red colour, generous body and inviting nose with pepper and chocolate notes. Fruity and spicy on the palate it pairs beautifully with beef and lamb or with hearty vegetable dishes.

- Château de Lascaux Cavalier Blanc 2022, Languedoc, France

Alex loves this wine because...

Jean-Benoît Cavalier is a winemaker espoused by those 'in the know'. We've been lucky to have worked with him for many years. This organic and biodynamic blend of Sauvignon Blanc, Viognier, Marsanne, and Roussanne is brimming with generous stone fruit, white flowers, and Mediterranean herb flavours. With a textural mouthfeel and streak of citrusy acidity, this wine is extraordinarily versatile – try it as an apéritif, with seafood starters, or indeed as an accompaniment to the Christmas turkey itself.

- Pask Instinct Sauvignon Blanc 2022, Marlborough, New Zealand

Neli loves this wine because...

A delightful and energetic glass of Marlborough Savvy. Vibrant passionfruit and lime with plenty of zesty acidity and long balanced finish. A real crowd pleaser, perfect with Christmas Day seafood and goats cheese starters.

- Domaine of the Bee Field of the Bee 2022, Roussillon, France

Seán loves this wine because...

Having had the pleasure of visiting Justin at Domaine of the Bee and walking amongst the ancient vines that forge this wine, I was immediately captured by the vitality of the landscape. A nostril-filling nose with bright mouth-watering fruit; hawthorne, pear, fresh pineapple with a very subtle bass note of creamy oak. The palate is dry, full of richness and flavour with a stony minerality that keeps you coming back for a second glass. A fascinating blend of Grenache Gris, Grenache Blanc and a little Roussanne. Wonderful with turkey, and rich seafood dishes or just some salted almonds and charcuterie.

James Nicholson Selection

"It's always fun selecting wines for my Christmas selection but challenging to narrow it down to the final 6! This year I have included a wonderful range of styles, origins, grape varieties and textures to give you a collection that is diverse and delicious. They are wines that won't break the bank and all are produced by talented winemakers from small vineyard holdings"

James

- Herdade do Sobroso Reserva Red 2021, Alentejo, Portugal

A wine of intense and concentrated colour. Fine aromas, with suggestions of mature fruit and chocolate in a charming and harmonious combination. A smooth red, well-structured in the mouth, with balanced acidity. Herdade do Sobroso wines are intense and elegant, with an aromatic complexity and natural freshness, they are a result of their respect for nature and the unique terroir of their vineyards on the banks of the River Guadiana. A great partner for slow cooked pork belly, lamb and mature cheeses.

- Rustenberg John X Merriman 2021, Stellenbosch, South Africa

The John X Merriman is a powerful, age worthy wine by Murray Barlow. In its youth there are notes of cassis, blackcurrant and dark fruits complemented with cigar tobacco and sour cherry. As the wine ages and its fine-grained tannins soften a softer more savoury palate develops revealing wonderful drinkability and tertiary complexity. A blend of traditional Bordeaux varieties: Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Malbec and Petit Verdot. Decant and enjoy with a fine Châteaubriand.

- Olga Raffault Cuvée Domaine 2020, Loire, France

An elegant, fresh and silky wine revealing liquorice notes intertwined with dark cherry and berry flavours. - Quinta Soalheiro Granit Alvarinho 2022, Minho, Portugal

Granit has a bright, lemon-yellow colour, exhibiting elegant aromas with mineral notes. On the palate it is crisp, dry and persistent, with stony flavours. There is a sensation of salinity reflecting the impact of the granite soils on Alvarinho. With its mineral flavours and bracing acidity, Soalheiro Granit especially complements Mediterranean cuisine such as seafood, grilled fish, or oven-baked fatty fish or delicate Asian dishes such as sushi or dumplings.

- Neudorf Tiritiri Chardonnay 2019, Nelson, New Zealand

On the nose - ocean sea spray, waxy native florals entwined with white peaches. On the palate there's notes of fennel & yuzu pith. The acidity and minerality are balanced with a touch of oak. The inaugural Tiritiri Chardonnay comes from three sites within the Moutere Hills, including the young vines of Neudorf's own Rosie's Block. A Chardonnay to be gently chilled and generously shared. Try with baked salmon.

- Sartarelli Verdicchio dei Castelli di Jesi Classico 2022, Marche, Italy

Straw yellow colour with greenish reflections. On the nose it immediately expresses the vineyard and the land with fruity and grassy notes. A well-structured wine, fresh and sapid at the same time, soft on the palate, with the characteristic slightly bitter almond aftertaste. This is the typical expression of Verdicchio wine, easy to drink, refreshing acidity and oodles of character in its youth. It is very versatile and excellent with seafood, hors d'oeuvres, risotto, mixed fried fish and vegetables.
